

The President's Legacy Scholarship for Graduate Studies

About the President's Legacy Scholarship

In 2007 WTS launched the President's Legacy Scholarship. Through this award, WTS provides $3,000 to an outstanding young woman pursuing graduate studies towards a career in transportation or a related field, and who demonstrates a specific interest in advancing transportation innovation in the international arena. This "rotating" scholarship takes the name of the current WTS International President Elaine Dezenski who is serving from 2008 through 2010.

The WTS mission of transforming the transportation industry through the advancement of women can be realized by encouraging them to further their careers as leaders in the transportation industry. WTS recognizes that transportation is more than simply moving people and goods from one place to another. It is a driver of growth, and an integral part of communities throughout the world. The leadership, skills and perspectives of women are essential to ensure that the transportation systems of the future respond to the needs of all.

Through the Elaine Dezenski Legacy Scholarship, WTS seeks to motivate and reward women who demonstrate leadership in the transportation industry to bring ideas, innovation and new approaches to transportation challenges in the US and beyond. This year's focus on global transportation challenges encourages candidates who have a specific interest in addressing the impact of transportation on sustainability, land use, environmental impact, security and quality of life as they affect communities around the globe.

About the President

A member of WTS since 1993, WTS International President Elaine Dezenski has been honored to serve in numerous leadership positions at both the Chapter and International level within the organization, including President of the WTS Washington, DC chapter 1998-2000, WTS International Board Member (2002-2004) Treasurer (2004-2006), Vice President (2006-2008). She has been an active member of the transportation and security community in both the public and private sector. From 2000-2006, she served in a variety of civil service and political appointments at the U.S. Departments of Transportation and Homeland Security. She was Senior Vice President of Government Affairs and Business Development at Cross Match Technologies, Inc., where she oversaw the company's global government affairs initiatives and business development. Elaine is currently Managing Director, Global Security Initiative at Interpol.
