

Cyndi Alder has more than 20 years of experience in sales, marketing and business development, 17 of those in the A/E/C industry. She is currently Director of Business Development for Jacobs for Maryland, Virginia and Washington, DC.

She has been active in WTS for many years, most recently as Director for the 2008-2010 International Board. Alder has also served as Chairperson of the WTS International New Chapter Development Committee and is past President of the Baltimore Chapter as well as being active in the Central Virginia Chapter. She was recognized this year at the Annual Conference as the 2008 WTS International Member of the Year.