

Kathleen Penney is the Northeast Geography Manager for CH2M HILL's transportation business group. Kathleen manages business development and operations for highway/bridge, transit, aviation and ports in the northeast states. Prior to joining CH2M HILL, she was Chief Engineer/Associate Director for the District of Columbia Department of Transportation where she managed a federally funded transportation program, balancing regional and national transportation demands with local needs for economic development, livability and sustainability.