

Kammy Horne, AICP
Vice President and Group Director, HNTB

Kammy Horne is a transportation planner who has gained considerable federal, state, and consultant experience on major transportation projects over her 24-year career. Kammy is a strong and innovative leader of people, projects, and processes and has a diverse background in the industry. She has spent most of her career in the transportation field and has built a reputation for her thought leadership in the field of transportation policy at various levels of local, state, and federal government. This has provided her with a wealth of experience and knowledge, and has given her perspectives on project planning, development, and implementation. In addition to her consultant experience, Kammy has worked in the public sector for both the Texas Department of Transportation and the Federal Transit Administration. She has been recognized for her work and management skills by her employers, her clients, and leading industry professionals.

Kammy is currently a Vice President and Austin Planning Group Director for HNTB. In this role, she oversees the planning, environmental, and traffic operations staff in the Austin Office. She also leads HNTB's Central Division Transportation Environmental Practice.

In addition to serving on the WTS Foundation Board, Ms. Horne is the co-chair of the Environmental Subcommittee on the American Public Transportation Association's Policy, Planning, and Program Development Committee. She is a 2015 graduate of the WTS Executive Leadership Program; a 2012 graduate of the APTA Leadership Program; and a 2009 graduate of the mid-career WTS Leadership Program.

Kammy is also active in the Austin area WTS Heart of Texas Chapter. She established and coordinated an advisory board and created and leads the mentorship program pairing women new to the transportation field with established male and female leaders for a six-month experience combining mentoring and formal personal growth programs on personal growth.

As a volunteer, Kammy joined CASA of Travis County in 2016, becoming a court appointed special advocate. The mission of CASA of Travis County is to promote and protect the best interest of children who have been abused or neglected, by training volunteers to advocate for them in courts, in schools and in the community to help them find safe, permanent and loving homes.

Kammy earned a MS degree at the University of Texas at Austin in Community and Regional Planning and a BS degree in Environmental Science from Long Island University, Southampton. In addition to her volunteer work, she enjoys running and spending time with her family.

Kammy can be reached at (512) 364-2598 or khorne@hntb.com