Who said breakfast is the most important meal of the day? On November 5, 2015, WTS-LA held its annual scholarship and awards dinner and for many it was the most important meal of the year. Doling out $36,000 in high school and college scholarships, WTS-LA not only celebrated its 30th anniversary but also named its yearly award recipients for a wide range of accomplishments. But if you were unable to attend or would just like to relive the glory of the evening, now you can through our photo galleries of the event.
